

Corporate Events at SummerStage in Central Park

SummerStage, presented by City Parks Foundation, is New York City's largest free outdoor performing arts festival, bringing free performances to 18 neighborhood parks across the five boroughs. With performances ranging from indie, Afrobeat, hip hop and soul to contemporary dance, spoken word, and R&B, SummerStage showcases the best in iconic and emerging talent from around the globe. Each year the festival features more than 100 performances and reaches 262,000 audiences. In the last few years alone, we have presented such artists as The Roots, Kamasi Washington, Jimmy Cliff, Muse, The xx, Jadakiss, Public Enemy, Elvis Costello (at left), Emmylou Harris, Florence and the Machine, Alabama Shakes, Janelle Monae, Phil Lesh, Khalid, Caribou, Ballet X, Ingrid Michaelson, George

Clinton, Patti Smith, Ryan Adams, Talib Kweli, and Beck, to name just a few.

Summer Associate Reception

Prior to a free SummerStage performance in Central Park, your guests (50 standing or 26 seated) will be invited to a behind-the-scenes tour of SummerStage with complimentary beer/wine. During the performance, all guests will have access to a private, elevated deck with enhanced sightlines. Upgrades may include complimentary beer/wine and food during the show, or the ability to select one of our benefit shows, which require ticket purchase and which often sell out.

SummerStage Corporate Membership

As a corporate member, your firm will receive passes to all free performances in Central Park, which are transferable to any employees and their guests throughout the season. Corporate Membership packages may include General Admission and VIP Member Deck tickets, Reserved Bleacher seating, Express Entry, complimentary beer/wine/water, and access to upgraded restrooms. Upgrade your SummerStage experience with complimentary VIP admission to our ticketed benefit shows, exclusive SummerStage merchandise, access to pre-sales, and private backstage tours throughout the season.
