

WELCOME TO

CityParks SUMMER STAGE 2018

PRESENTED BY

City Parks Foundation is delighted to present the 2018 season of SummerStage, New York's largest free outdoor performing arts festival. New York is the quintessential global city, and the place we have been proud to call home for more than three decades. SummerStage brings the best music from around the world to New York's many and varied communities, using local neighborhood parks as gathering spaces in which to experience world class culture. From iconic performers to the latest up-and-coming artist, we present everything from indie to Afrobeat, Latin trap to soul, reggae to contemporary dance, fado to EDM, and everything in between. Join us for more than 100 shows in 18 neighborhood parks this summer. Come watch a legendary artist or discover the performer you'll love next!

SUMMERSTAGE FOR FAMILY & COMMUNITY

SummerStage performances are fun and welcoming for New Yorkers of all ages. Our schedule highlights family-friendly activities, including dance and drum workshops, and a very special opportunity to learn steps from choreographer Alvin Ailey's world famous work, Revelations, directly from the Ailey company's own dance instructors.

Sunday, July 15 is this year's Family Day in Central Park, with a New Orleans-themed Mardi Gras Celebration featuring the legendary Rebirth Brass Band and other guests. And the fun continues with our traveling PuppetMobile, which will visit parks all over the city to present The Big Good Wolf, a modern-day fairy tale starring classic characters from The Three Bears and Three Little Pigs. And, of course, our Swedish Cottage Marionette Theatre in Central Park will continue its run of Neverland: Peter Returns, a spin on the beloved children's classic Peter Pan.

Beyond workshops & family programming, SummerStage shows will feature community partners' activations and booths - connecting and celebrating our City's exceptional variety of cultures and communities. Learn more about our community partners' work by stopping by their tents onsite at select SummerStage shows and participating in their activations - ranging from interactive art installations to neighborhood-led fitness programs.

Check out SummerStage.org for full details on all of our family-friendly performances and partner details this summer.

GET INSPIRED WITH HOWARD ZINN'S VOICES

We are excited to collaborate with VOICES, a non-profit arts, education and social justice organization founded by Howard Zinn and Anthony Arnove, who together edited the book Voices of a People's History of the United States, which brings to life the extraordinary history of ordinary people who built the movements that made the United States what it is today. Six SummerStage VOICES programs will feature contemporary artists and authors who will use events, music and words from our nation's history as inspiration for new discussions. The series will culminate in Central Park on August 28 with live readings, dialogue, music and celebration. By giving public expression to rebels, dissenters, and visionaries from our past—and present—SummerStage and VOICES seek to educate and inspire a new generation working for social justice.

This year's festival will kick off with a celebration of the 50th anniversary of the release of Charles Tolliver's debut album and will include Ron Carter and Gary Bartz from the original recording, along with special guests Jack DeJohnette, Buster Williams, and others. The festival continues with a dizzying array artists including Grammy-winning vocalist Catherine Russell, veteran jazz pianist Monty Alexander, rising star Keyon Harrold, child prodigy Matthew Whitaker, virtuoso pianist and vocalist Amina Claudine Myers, modern jazz trio The Bad Plus, revered saxophonist Gary Bartz, and a new work featuring three young artists: saxophonist Immanuel Wilkins, vibraphonist Joel Ross, and trumpeter Adam O'Farrill.

Check SummerStage.org for more details and additional festival activities, including a free concert at the School of Jazz at The New School.
