City Parks Foundation is dedicated to invigorating and transforming parks into dynamic, vibrant centers of urban life through sports, arts, community building and education programs for all New Yorkers.

Our programs -- located in more than 300 parks, recreation centers, and public schools across the City --reach over 300,000 people each year. Our ethos is simple: thriving parks mean thriving communities.

PLAY

Our free sports programs help keep over 9,000 kids active and healthy while learning sports they can play for life -- tennis, soccer, golf, and track & field. Fitness programs help keep nearly 1,200 seniors agile and connected to their communities.

SHOWS

Our iconic Capital One City Parks Foundation SummerStage festival presents more than 70 free and benefit performances each summer to more than 227,000 attendees, featuring both legendary and emerging artists. The Swedish Cottage Marionette Theatre in Central Park and the traveling PuppetMobile present original puppetry programs for more than 30,000 kids of all ages.

LEARN

Our environmental education programs help students experience the fun of STEM, learn about their relationship to the natural world, and how they can protect our environment. Seeds to Trees, Learning Gardens, and Coastal Classroom programs reach more than 3,000 students and 180 interns in school, after school and during the summer.

BUILD

We help more than 28,000 individual volunteers, 420 grassroots community park groups and the many nonprofit park stewards advocate and care for our city's parks and green spaces. Partnerships for Parks, celebrating its 30th anniversary in 2025, and Open Spaces Partners-NYC coalition help increase the capacity of community partners and foster collaboration with NYC Parks. We provide funding through the NYC Green Fund, support operations through fiscal sponsorship and shared
